

AFC – APPOINTMENT OF DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE

Michigan Department of Human Services
Division of Adult Foster Care and Home for the Aged Licensing

Pursuant to the adult foster care licensing rules, a resident may appoint a designated representative. "Designated representative" means that person or agency which has been granted written authority, be a resident, to act on behalf of the resident or which is the legal guardian of the resident. Rule 400.14112/400.315102(1)(g).*

I _____, appoint _____
Name of Resident Name of Designated Representative to be my designated representative while I reside in this licensed adult foster care home. I acknowledge that this appointment remains in effect until it is revoked by me in writing.

I agree that the scope of my designated representative's authority is limited to the roles and responsibilities established in the adult foster care licensing rules.

I further state that my designated representative is not authorized to take any action relating to the following:
